

Whistle Blowing Policy

Objectives

Fima Corporation Group (“the Group”) is committed to achieving the highest standards of integrity from all its employees and vendors. The Group takes a serious view of any wrongdoing on the part of its employees, management, directors, vendors or any other stakeholders who are involved with or in the Group.

This policy establishes the Group’s position in encouraging employees or other stakeholders to raise genuine concerns about possible improprieties in matters relating to financial reporting, compliance and other malpractices or misconduct that may have occurred. The Whistle-blowing channels are established to help employees or other stakeholders raise concerns, without fear of reprisals or retaliations.

The Group expects all parties to always act in good faith and have reasonable grounds when reporting a Whistle-blowing complaint. However, malicious and false allegations by a whistle blower will be viewed seriously and treated as a gross misconduct and if proven may lead to dismissal.

The identity of parties reporting a Whistle-blowing complaint will be kept confidential. However, their consent will be sought should there be a need to disclose their identity for investigation purposes.

Any attempt to retaliate, victimize or intimidate against anyone who has reported a Whistle-blowing complaint in good faith will be subjected to the appropriate disciplinary actions.

Types of Wrongdoing

Parties can report a Whistle-blowing complaint if they are aware of any Wrongdoing, including, but not limited to the following:

- Fraud.
- Misappropriation of assets.
- Criminal breach of trust.
- Corruption.
